

Project No. N°: PI190106 Dak Nen Action Plan- Nov 2019-Jan/May 2020

No	Activity	Who respond to	Participants	How to work	Output	Outcome	Time
1	Coordinate a meeting between involved stakeholders for previous project overviewing and coming project clarification	Mr Nha on behalf of CODE/CENDI and Mr Qui on behalf of Kon Plong Authority	9 members from Justice, Agriculture, Forestry, Eco-Tourism, Re-settlement, Culture Departments, New Rural Economic Program, KonPlong President and Administrative Officer of KonPlong DPC; 3 presidents of CPC of Dak Nen, Mang Canh and Po E ¹ commune; 6 YIELDS-AGREE from 3 targeted communes; 1 from KUSTA province; 3 from CENDI-CODE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Administrative Officer of Kon Plong district will initiate proceeding and issue invitations for a meeting; b. YIELDS-AGREE will raise up-dated challenges and contradictions due to: 1) the problematics for upland farming of the re-settlement program; 2) pressure on land for Mang Canh because of the opening up of land for economic development in Mang Canh, 3) Increase of Industrial Cassava Planting associated with herbicide use in forestland. 	A legal co-responsible agreement paper signed between involved official parties for further implementation 2020-2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. All stakeholders have a clear understanding via overviewing the previous project and coming actions towards the second phase of Dak Nen in combination with the first Land Right-based phase of Mang Canh for further monitoring and evaluation; b. A legal committee on behalf of Dak Nen and Mang Canh project will be formalized 	By Nov 2019
2	Based on the legal permission paper from the first meeting, undertake Participatory Learning and Action Survey in in Dak Nen Commune	Resettlement and Agriculture officer and senior of CODE/CENDI	Traditional elders, key farmers and Yields-AGREE from two fully flooded re-settlement villages (Lang vuong and Xo luong) with 90 households; Agriculture officers; New Rural Economic officer; Dak Nen CPC officer; and Land Use Officer will be involved in participatory dialogue and field visits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Visiting the upland farming areas flooded by Hydropower Dam; b. Direct observation, recording of stories from people, filming the real situation, meeting all villagers, make checklist of problems and come together to find a common solution for further dialogue and negotiation 	An up-dated Situation Document including pictures and slide show for the up-land farming situation and difficulties of villagers of the two fully flooded villages,	Resettlement Officer and villagers have a better understanding for together raising the issue to upper official level for further action	By Dec 2019 to January 2020
3	Based on the legal permission paper from the first meeting, undertake Participatory Learning and Action Survey in Mang Canh	Natural Resource Management Department Officer and senior from CODE/CENDI	Village Leaders, Key Farmers and selected YIELDS-AGREE (identified by young YIELDS-AGREE in Po E and Dak Nen), Forestry officer, CPC officer, and Mapping Experts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Overview DPC of Kon Plong's master planning for land use in Mang canh and neighboring territories; b. Learning how much land in Mang Canh has given to agri-business and corporations. 	An in detail up-date of the forest and land use situation in Mang Canh for further approaches and negotiation of Land Rights in Mang Canh	Different stakeholders have a better understanding of the real forest and land use situation in Mang Canh where land has officially been opened up for corporations for economic section	By Dec 2019 – January 2020

¹ POE commune's president also invited for overviewing the previous project and common challenges of AGRI-BUSINESS to all Indigenous People in three communes (POE, Dak Nen and Mang Canh)

No	Activity	Who respond to	Participants	How to work	Output	Outcome	Time
	Commune for further Land Right' steps.
4	Deepened Participatory Action Research associated with strengthening advocacy capacity for key farmers and YIELDS-AGREE in Dak Nen	Senior from CODE/CENDI	Expert from Ethnic Minority Council of National Assembly and CEMA (Committee of Ethnic Minority Affair), CODE/CENDI and KPC officers, and Traditional Elders, Key Farmers, and YIELDS-AGREE	Integrate multi-actors (high-ranking officers, key farmers, YIELDS-AGREE, DPC of Kon Plong, CPC of Dak Nen associated with POE ²) in participatory action field research for raising awareness of high-ranking officers to recognize the grass-root challenges and suffering.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awareness raising opportunity for involved multi-actors via co-research and field observations; Up-dated evidence documented for two resettled villages 	Reliable indicators for EIA ³ and SIA ⁴ of problems caused by hydropower and resettlement for further analysis of the resettlement policy in Dak Nen, as well as another 8 different hydropower dams, including Po E newest project	January to May 2020
5	Deepened action research on local wisdom, custom and knowledge in forest and land management in Mang Canh	Senior from CODE/CENDI	Expert from Central Economic Committee ⁵ ; New Rural Economic Officer of DPC of Kon Plong, Traditional Elders, Key Farmers, senior YIELDS-AGREE of Kon Plong region	Involve high ranking officer, DPC of Kon Plong with farmers in participatory learning and action research which directly shows the real suffering of the indigenous farmer in Mang Canh who lose their ancestral forest and land because of the New Economic Section policy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Awareness raising opportunity for involved multi-actors via witnessing cooperative action research and field landscape transect cutting; Up-dated evidence on forest and land usage problems in Mang Canh will be documented. 	Reliable mapping evidence which shows the percentage of: 1) forest and land occupied by corporations; 2) forest and land occupied by individual businessmen, 3) forest and land occupied by state forest enterprise; and 4) forest and land left behind for M'Nam indigenous people in Mang Canh commune!	January to May 2020
6	Final Revised Action Plan, project activities, approach and expected outcome for two communes	Senior from CODE/CENDI	DPC of Kon Plong, CPC of Dak Nen and Mang Canh, KUSTA, Resettlement Officer and PPC of Kon Tum.	Clarification to finalize what has actually been happening in both Dak Nen and Mang Canh for detailing implementation process	Final agreement and regulation for Co-Working and Co-Problem Solving between CODE/CENDI and Authority	Better understanding for on-going actions during two years of project action	April- May ⁶ 2020

Approved by CENDI Director

² POE is suffering with NEW hydropower company from Quang Ngai

³ EIA=Environmental Impact Assessment

⁴ SIA = Social Impact Assessment

⁵ Who direct responsibility to policy makers in Kon Plong hostest territory

⁶ Working with Land Right Based and resettled compensation issue, always challenges and changeable, therefore, action plan need to be enough flexible and dynamic understanding according to authority attitude and their up-dated understandable.